INSPIRE! is where the conversation goes deeper.

INSPIRE! is rooted in authentic storytelling, transformative conversation, and community connection. Each week, the show creates space for meaningful dialogue that encourages, empowers, and emboldens viewers to create tangible change in their personal lives, communities, and the world.

Through conversations with entrepreneurs, creatives, faith leaders, changemakers, cultural voices, and everyday people with something worth saying, INSPIRE! explores the questions beneath the polished answer: What shaped you? What did it cost? What are you learning? Where is the joy? What do you want people to understand that they might never think to ask?

Brooklyn-born. Jamaican-rooted.
Ohio-based. Always asking the next question.

Sue launched INSPIRE! out of a deep belief in the power of storytelling to transform lives. After navigating seasons of transition, loss, reinvention, and healing, she recognized the need for a space where authentic conversations could exist beyond performance and superficiality.

A proudly neurospicy creative, Sue brings curiosity, lived experience, humor, and Brooklyn directness into conversations about purpose, faith, identity, belonging, entrepreneurship, and what comes after survival. She also serves in local and national ministry leadership and is the founder of Kara Solutions LLC.

Not a promo stop. A real conversation.

INSPIRE! is known for questions that guests do not usually get asked. The goal is not simply to cover what someone is selling, launching, or promoting. It is to understand the person, the work, the tension, the turning points, and the joy underneath it all.

QUESTIONS NO ONE ELSE ASKS

Thoughtful research and unexpected questions create room for reflection instead of rehearsed answers.

PROFESSIONAL + HUMAN

A polished live production with the warmth of a conversation that feels personal, unhurried, and alive.

OPEN + AFFIRMING

INSPIRE! welcomes people across identities, beliefs, and backgrounds, without requiring anyone to shrink who they are.

JOY BELONGS HERE

Even when the subject is heavy, we make room to ask what is giving life, delight, laughter, or hope.

INSPIRE! reaches a primarily women-led audience of adults 35-55, with strong communities in New York and Atlanta and viewers tuning in across platforms. They are entrepreneurs, faith leaders, creatives, professionals, advocates, and people navigating their own seasons of becoming.
